Pumpkin Painting: Sat., Oct. 12, 11:00 am

Get in the fall spirit with some pumpkin painting! We'll have paints, brushes, smocks, and a limited number of pumpkins to make a fun Halloween decoration. Paint your pumpkin like a scary creature, a book character (our favorite!), or anything else you like. Thank you to Stanton Farm for donating pumpkins!

Turning Memories Into Stories: Thurs., Sept. 19 - Oct. 17, 11:30 am

This workshop for adults will introduce ways to turn the raw materials of your memory into well-structured, engaging stories using traditional storytelling strategies. Guided exercises will help even the most inexperienced writers sift through memories and build compelling narratives.

Author Talk with Libby Cudmore: Sat, Oct. 19, 12:00 am

The Community Library is pleased to welcome award-winning author Libby Cudmore back to her hometown for a reading and conversation about her latest novel, Negative Girl, published by Datura Books in September 2024.

Come cheer on the students who've been taking ukulele lessons over the past six weeks as they present a final recital. They will show off the skills they've acquired under the guidance of instructor Larry Mazza, operator of Backstreet Music. This project is made possible with funds from the Statewide Community Regrant Program, a regrant program of the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of The Office of the Governor and the New York State Legislature and administered by CREATE Council on the Arts.

Felted Halloween Decor: Thurs., Oct. 24, 6:00 pm

Looking to try needle felting for the first time? This class will introduce basic felting techniques using simple Halloween decorations as practice projects. Drop in and give it a try. Open to adults and teens over 12 years old. No admission fee, no experience needed, no registration required, and we'll provide all the supplies you'll need.
