SPECIAL NOVEMBER PROGRAMS

Day Writers: Sat., Nov. 1 & Fri., Nov. 21 at 11:00 am This program is for folks seeking a creative outlet where they can write for fun and self-reflection. The moderator will provide a few prompts and exercises and let writers respond in whatever way they'd like, whether it's poetry, short fiction, a political rant, nature writing, a personal memory, or some new literary hybrid no one's ever tried before.

Tabling Tuesday: Cancer Services: Tuesday, Nov. 4, 11:00 am Stop by the Community Library anytime between 11 am and 1 pm to learn about the programs and services of the Cancer Services Program in the Bassett Health Network. Meet one-on-one with Jessica Whitney, the Public Education & Community Outreach Coordinator with any questions.

Teen D&D New Table Planning Session: Tuesday, Nov. 4, 5:30 pm Our Teen D&D program has gotten so popular, we're adding a second table aimed at beginner players. During this first session, we'll be setting expectations, creating characters, and getting ready to start the adventure on November 18. For middle and high schoolers only.

Ken Burns Rev War Preview: Wednesday, Nov. 12, 1:00 pm Timed with America's 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, PBS is releasing The American Revolution a Ken Burns, Sarah Botstein, and David Schmidt miniseries premiering on November 16.th The Community Library will present a sneak preview of 32 minutes of video clips from the miniseries focused on The Spirit of Service: Civic Engagement. A moderated audience discussion will follow.

Library Secrets for Teen Readers: Wednesday, Nov. 12, 6:00pm Learn how the library can help you get the information you need! This program includes a short tour and overview of the library's collections, programs, and services; a presentation on our catalog and how to use it to find books; and opportunities to practice using the catalog to locate books in our collection. For ages 11-18; parents and scout leaders may also attend.

Fuzzy Belly Fiber Friends: Thursday, Nov. 13, 6:00 pm We're restarting our old Fuzzy Belly Felting Friends program, but opening it up to other fiber artists as well. We're now Fuzzy Belly FIBER Friends! Bring your works-in-progress (knitting, crochet, felting, embroidery, whatever) and socialize with other crafters and artisans.

Friends of the Library Silent Auction: Friday, Nov. 14, 5:00 pm Come support The Community Library Renovation Project! From 5:00 to 8:00pm, bid on pieces of art painted by local artists, made from slates from our roof. Enjoy music provided by Christina Johnson and Lou Smaldone, and hors d'ouevres and dessert.

Game Explorers: Wednesday, Nov. 19, 6:00 pm This new program for adults and teens (16+) will introduce one tabletop game (e.g., board, card, dice, role playing games) each session. We'll teach participants the setup, rules, and strategies first, then play a few games as a group. Learn new games, meet new people, and have fun. The game for November 2025 is Dixit, an award-winning game from France that combines beautiful art, creative inspiration, and thoughtful interpretation.

Engineering Challenge with SMIST: Pneumatic Machine: Thursday, Nov. 20, 4:30pm

Build a pneumatic (air-operated) machine out of easy to find materials and discover the many objects it can lift and lower. Registration is required. Sign up online at bit.ly/NovemberEngineering25

Trivia Night at the Library!: Thursday, Nov. 20, 6:00 pm Assemble a team of up to five and join us for our monthly trivia contest covering a range of general knowledge categories. Trivia Host Don asks the questions in two fast-paced rounds and the highest scoring teams win bragging rights and, occasionally, modest prizes. It's a good, fun, social, educational time for all, with snacks provided by the Friends of the Library.

Craft Your Own Bracelet: Saturday, Nov. 29, 11:00 am Learn to make fun bracelets with embroidery floss! We'll be teaching beginner and intermediate bracelet patterns with classic friendship bracelet techniques as well as the basics of kumihimo braiding. Recommended for ages 8 and up.
